

Andrea Barausse – short CV

Born in Italy 5 July 1958

1977 Italian Technical School for Electro - technician Certificate

1977-1978 worked full time in Family business (electrical & Lighting supply and Installation)

1978-1984 started own electrical company – specializing in tubular lighting systems and automation control and obtained several lighting agencies for the South African market

1986 -87 started local assembly of Tubular lighting systems for an Italian system and expanded the production to Own design and obtained recognition at the Style Awards

1989 -91 completed Lighting 3 course/affiliated member of ILESA/Member of Society of Designers of South Africa/winner of Osram lighting award

1992-2008 presented papers to IEESA on 4 different occasions, continued working with Lighting in the upper domestic market and industrial markets, and from 2003 has become very successfully involved in DSM energy saving projects together with business associates.